MESSAGE FROM THE IN-CHARGE

"I do not want my house to be walled in on all sides and my windows to be stuffed. I want the culture of all lands to be blown about my house as freely as possible. But I refuse to be blown off my feet by any"

- Mahatma Gandhi

This timeless and profound quote by Gandhiji echoes of the very foundation of intercultural understanding in the globalized world today. The new national education policy (NEP) of our country also envisions creating truly global citizens well connected to their roots as well as reach out to new heights beyond national boundaries.

The foremost requirement to achieve this objective is that the learners first learn to understand and respect each other's culture and beliefs and treat each other equitably and inclusively.

School, a microcosm of society facilitates a learning space where students are engaged in multidimensional activities and projects within the framework of 3H- Head, Heart and Hand with right pedagogical approaches and integrated curriculum.

In a culturally diverse country like ours, community itself provides another wonderful experiential learning space where our children grow up in an environment infused with rich and diverse traditions, customs, languages, festivals and celebration, promoting intercultural awareness and values acceptance and appreciation in them.

The month of August was dedicated to celebrating 76 years of independence fostering spirit of patriotism and intercultural understanding in our learners through an array cultural, literary and craft activities.

Our young learners as future citizens, need to learn the importance of living together peacefully and constructively with other cultures with a sense of community. With successful G20 Summit and launch of Chandrayaan 3, we are moving towards a building a stronger and better world for our children.

In my opinion, together as a school and community, we can work towards fostering pride of being an Indian and positive intercultural behaviour in learners starting with inculcation of empathy, respect and responsibility, in a trickle-down fashion slowly, steadily but surely.

A day to reflect, rejoice, and recommit to the Ideals of freedom

A celebration filled with patriotic fervor and a deep sense of national pride was presented by the tiny tots of Nursery & Primary Wing. The event aimed to commemorate the independence of our beloved nation while instilling a sense of appreciation for our freedom. Students showcased their talents through a variety of cultural performances that depicted the rich diversity and heritage of our nation. There were captivating dance performances, patriotic songs by choir, an engaging skit that highlighted important events and personalities from our history. Eloquent speeches and heartfelt poems were delivered by students, emphasizing the significance of Independence Day and the sacrifices made by our freedom fighters. These presentations deepened the understanding of our national heritage and the importance of unity in diversity. The atmosphere was filled with a sense of patriotism and admiration for our nation's achievements.

Bharat Ke Sapoot - Fancy Dress with a Difference

"Bharat ke Sapoot" Fancy Dress Competition was a delightful and vibrant event that celebrated the heroes and iconic figures of our great nation. The competition aimed to inspire students to learn about and emulate the remarkable personalities who have contributed to the progress and glory of our country. The competition witnessed an overwhelming response from the students, with participants of Grade 1 and 2 showcasing their creativity and enthusiasm. It was heartwarming to see the students' eagerness to portray the heroes of our nation through their fancy dress costumes. The participants dressed up as renowned freedom fighters, prominent leaders, scientists, artists, and other individuals who have left an indelible mark on Indian history. The costumes were meticulously designed, reflecting the unique characteristics and attire of each personality. The students exuded confidence and stage presence as they walked the ramp, introducing themselves and providing a brief background about the personality they were representing. It was impressive to witness their knowledge and admiration for these national icons. A panel of esteemed judges evaluated the participants based on criteria such as costume design, resemblance to the character, presentation, and knowledge about the personality portrayed. The judges had a challenging task, given the exceptional efforts put forth by the students. Such events not only foster a sense of pride but also inspire the younger generation to strive for excellence and contribute to the progress of our beloved country.

TRICOLOUR CREATIONS

'Tri-Colour Creations' Activity was organized to celebrate the spirit of patriotism and commemorate the colors of our national flag. The activity endeavoured to promote creativity, and a sense of national pride among the students. The students crafted various items, such as paper flags, Chandrayaan, origami flowers and decorative hangings, using the tri-color theme.

They displayed their artistic abilities while incorporating the significance of each color and the national flag. Once the crafts were completed, they were displayed in the corridors, creating a vibrant and patriotic ambience.

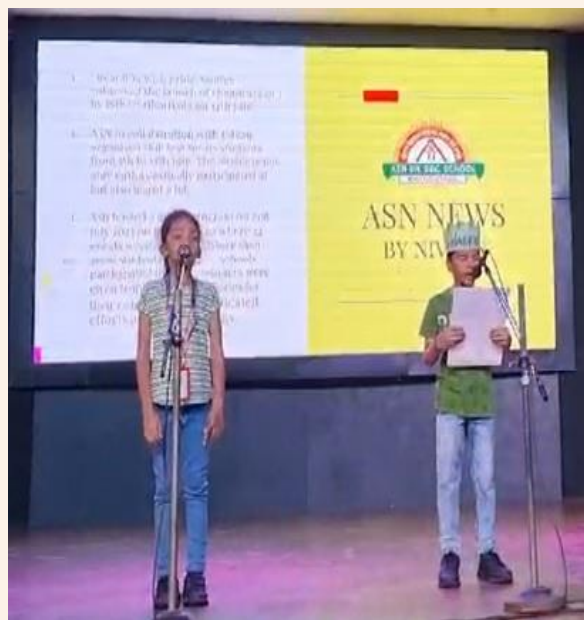

"You have to dream before your dream can come true."

Keeping this in mind, the students of Class II A conducted a special assembly on the theme "India of My Dreams." The theme reflected that dreams are imaginative manifestations of our goals and vision, which are then turned into reality. The students beautifully depicted 'Mere Sapno Ka Bharat' through a Nukkad Natak, which highlighted India's future.

A rendition of the song 'Sare Jahan Se Acha' and a phenomenal dance performance rekindled feeling of patriotism. Principal Ms. Luthra and Incharge Dr. Renuka Rawat appreciated and applauded the efforts put forth by the students.

THINK BEFORE YOU TRASH

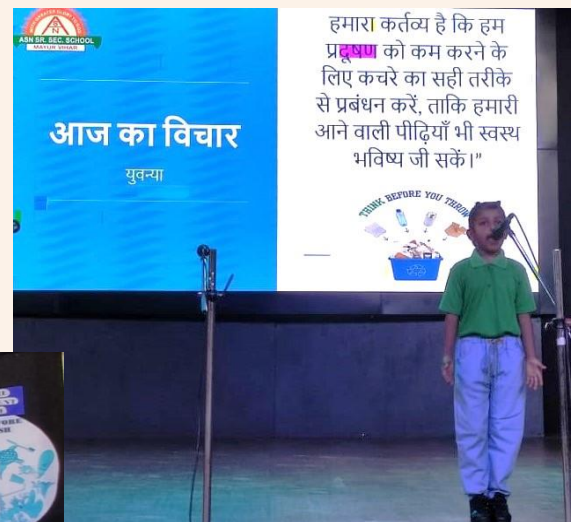

"Before discarding, consider the impact: every item has a story and a potential to contribute to a cleaner, greener world."

The theme of being mindful before discarding something as trash was brought alive by class 2C through special assembly on 'Think Before you Trash'.

The highlight of the program was an engaging and captivating skit which urged everyone to reflect upon our consumption patterns with a focus on 3 pillars of sustainability - Reduce, Reuse and Recycle. It was followed by an enthralling documentary on 'Treasure to Trash'.

The assembly culminated on a high positive note with enlightening speech by LPW Incharge Dr. Renuka Rawat reminding everyone that our individual actions have a collective effect and every small step counts!

Grandparents Day

"The Lower Primary Wing of ASN School celebrated Grandparents Day with great enthusiasm and love, honoring the invaluable role that grandparents play in our lives. The event was organized to strengthen the bond between grandparents and their grandchildren to acknowledge their wisdom, love, and guidance. The celebration commenced with a warm and heartfelt welcome extended to all the grandparents with a Tilak, succeeded by Ganesh Vandana which was a sight to behold as the little ones expressed their affection towards their grandparents. The beauty of the event were the evocative chants taken from Upanishads which were harmonized by the young choir.

To showcase the beautiful bond between grandparents and their grandchildren, a ramp walk was organized. Both the grandchild and grandparent pairs walked hand in hand, radiating love and happiness. The ramp was adorned with vibrant decorations, creating a festive ambiance. During the ramp walk, the students and their grandparents shared anecdotes about their cherished memories, special moments, and the valuable life lessons they have learned from each other. This segment of the event was filled with laughter, tears of joy, and a profound sense of gratitude. The Grandparents Day celebration also included various activities and performances to honor different generations. Students presented heartwarming songs, dances, and Nukkad Natak that highlighted the importance of family bonds, respect for elders, and the wisdom passed down through generations.

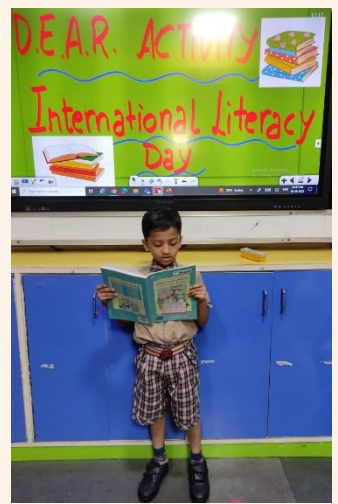

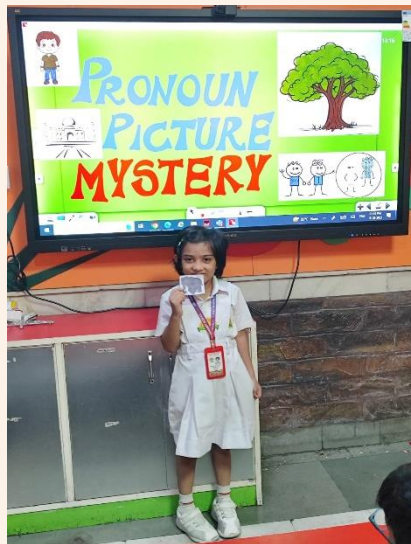

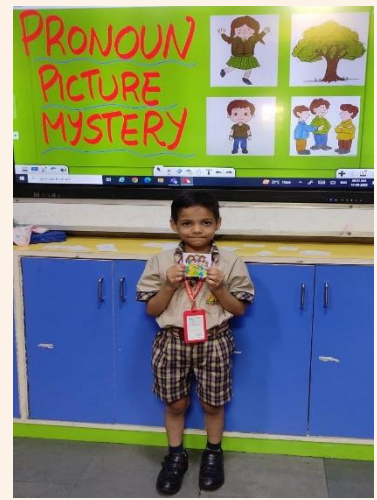

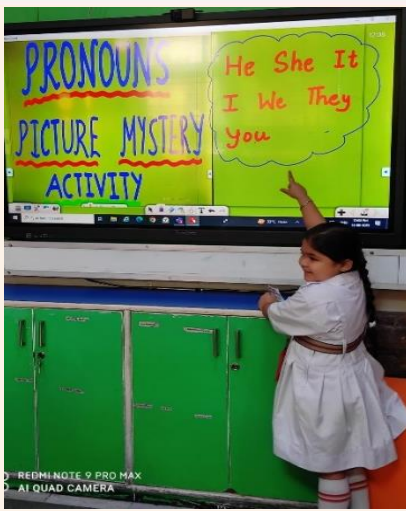

To facilitate a deeper connection and understanding, The ramp walk allowed for the beautiful bond between grandparents and grandchildren to be showcased, reminding everyone of the significance of these relationships. The highlight of the assembly was a heartfelt speech by the Principal, who shared her personal experiences and insights. Also, she presented a Bhagwat Geeta to each grandparent as a token of appreciation, as she extended her sincere gratitude and honored the importance of family and intergenerational connections.

Project Clean Up

Project Clean Up kick started with clean drive in the classroom. The students actively participated in various cleaning activities, including picking up litter, cleaning windows and blackboards, and organizing storage areas. They worked diligently, demonstrating their commitment to maintaining a clean and tidy classroom and school environment. The drive aimed to create a clean and hygienic school environment while instilling the importance of cleanliness in students' daily lives. Alongside the cleaning activities, a video and song were displayed and conducted to educate students about the importance of cleanliness, waste management, and the impact of their actions on the environment. Presentations, and discussions were utilized to disseminate information and encourage responsible behaviour.

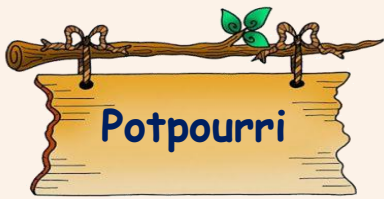

"Sharing and Caring" theme was taken up to cultivate important life skills and values among the students. The activities focused on promoting empathy, kindness, and the spirit of sharing, fostering a caring and inclusive school community. The event began with a 'sharing circle', where students gathered to express their thoughts and experiences related to sharing and caring after the story session along with songs and videos. Students were encouraged to perform random acts of kindness throughout the day.

They engaged in activities such as helping classmates with assignments, sharing stationery, offering compliments, and assisting teachers with tasks. These acts fostered a culture of empathy and consideration. To instill a sense of gratitude and acknowledge the invaluable contributions of these individuals in our lives and the school community. Students enthusiastically participated in making personalized Thank You cards for our helpers. They used their creativity and artistic skills to design unique and heartfelt cards, incorporating messages of appreciation and love.
